Entry fee of £4 per seat

Notes:

- 1. Novice rowers only. Rowers must compete for their academic college. Full names are required for entry.
2. Entries only accepted on the official entry form, as sent to club captains. Late entries may be accepted at the discretion of the Regatta Secretary.
3. Competitors enter at their own risk, and it is a club's own responsibility to ensure that they are covered by university insurance.
4. The draw, local rules and safety plan will be shared as soon as possible following the completion of the draw and will also be accessible via the Durham College Rowing Facebook event page.
5. Race numbers will be available for collection from Race Control on the day. Payment MUST be received by February 22nd.
6. The Regatta Secretary and Water Safety Officer reserve the right to cancel individual boat classes or the entire event on the day, if weather and/or river conditions dictate. This decision is without appeal.
7. While entry fees are non-refundable (scratched crews must be paid for), a cancelled event due to extraordinary circumstances may allow for partial refunds.
8. This event will be held in accordance with the Durham College Rowing Regulations. Boats and crews failing to comply will not be permitted to compete.
9. There will be no formal boat sharing, any sharing of boats must be arranged privately between colleges. It is at the club's discretion whether they use wooden or plastic boats.
10. All clubs competing must provide a proportionate number of marshals, failure to do so will result in penalties including potential disqualification.
11. There is to be no doubling of entries, rowers may only be entered in one crew.

*Additional entries allowed but not guaranteed. Additional entries will incur race fees only if the entry is accepted.
